

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

Dainty Miss Who Will Read at Methodist Church on Wednesday

June Margaret Norris.

Next Wednesday evening, March 28, the aid society of the Methodist church will give a benefit entertainment in the church chapel. For this affair some of the best talent of the city will contribute their services. A promised feature of especial interest will be a series of readings by June Margaret Norris, an 8-year-old dramatic reader who has already won much praise by her precocious command of

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION. The fifty-ninth birthday anniversary of Otto E. Lund was fittingly celebrated last Wednesday, March 21, at the family home, 330 Adams avenue. The guests enjoyed several games of progressive five hundred and the lucky players were Mrs. Jack Sarsar and Mrs. William Carlson. Refreshments were served to the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Steele, Mrs. E. B. Kearnes, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garr, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Price, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Geiger, Dr. and Mrs. A. Fernald, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chmberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Thorsted, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Levedahl, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Streeter, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sarsar, Mrs. Paul Christensen, Mrs. Neils Christensen, Miss Elmer Lund, Miss Ellen Christensen, Miss Ruth and Lillie Christensen, Jennie and Frankie Kearns, Master Blaine Steele, Jack Carl and Raymond Lund, Bill Chamberlain.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING. The Parent-Teachers' association of the Mound Fort ward met Wednesday March 21, with a very good attendance. After the regular routine of business was over a very good program was given, as follows:

Song, "The Songs My Mother Used to Sing," Mrs. Ezra Jones.
Address, Dr. E. P. Mills.
Discussion, topic "Comic Section of the Newspaper," led by Mrs. J. L. Anderson.

Song and recitation, Irene Farr.
Reading, June Norris.
After the program they adjourned to the upper hall, where the usual social hour was enjoyed. The luncheon on the tables was attractively decorated with sweet peas, ferns and carnations.

Brigham City Society

(Special to The Standard.)
BRIGHAM CITY, March 24.—The Brigham City Kindergarten club gave a most successful ball at the academy Wednesday evening which was attended by several hundred persons. The object of the ball was to aid in raising means with which to complete the children's playgrounds which were laid out last spring and partially completed. The party was one of the most enjoyable dancing events of the past winter.

George M. Whitmore, cashier of the First National bank of Nephi, was a visitor to this city Tuesday. He was the guest of John D. Peters, cashier of the First National bank of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Meffert left Monday evening for a ten days' visit to Mr. Meffert's old home in Kansas City, Mo., where they will attend a reunion of the Meffert family.

Lewis A. Pond, formerly of Star valley, Idaho, but lately of South America, has purchased the beautiful new home of George A. Anderson, assistant cashier of the Brigham State bank, and will make his home here in the future.

W. G. Jenkins, banker, of Malad, Idaho, spent a day or two of the week in this city visiting friends and acquaintances.

Penrose Burnham of Salt Lake spent Saturday and Sunday in this city visiting friends.

Miss Barbara Larsen came over from Logan and spent a couple of days here visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Alta Richards went to Logan Saturday evening and remained over Sunday. She attended the Pheta ball while in the temple city.

Mrs. J. Scott Jensen and children and Miss Louise Berg departed Saturday afternoon for a two months' visit to California. They will spend the greater part of the time in Los Angeles visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jensen.

Elit T. Pierce of Harper ward returned the latter part of last week from an extended stay in southern California, where he went before the holidays to perform special missionary work for the Mormon church.

Arlo Anderson and Ruel Eskelsen attended the class ball of the Agricultural college in Logan Saturday evening.

The Kindergarten club gave an open meeting in the Presbyterian chapel yesterday afternoon which was addressed by Miss Rose Jones of the University of Utah and Mrs. J. H. Linford of the B. Y. college at Logan.

A number of prominent women of the second ward met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Orson Nelson and organized a camp of the Daughters of the Pioneers. Mrs. Orson Nelson was made president.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. William Jensen returned from Long Beach, Cal., where they spent six days.

One of the most pleasant card parties of the past winter was given at the home of Mrs. E. H. Morris last night when Leroy Hadley and others entertained at a progressive five hundred. House decorations were carnations and ferns. Assisting in serving were Misses Mary Olsen and Daisy Barger. Among the invited guests were Misses Jennie Dewey of Emmett, Idaho, Beth Chamberlain of Salt Lake, Julia Hubbard of Willard, Marco Madson, Chloe Williams, Myra Lewis, Lucille Lewis, Maurine Goodridge, Virgie Winn, Irma Anderson, Edna Stohl, Fay Hanson, Zola Call, Alta Richards, Earl Wright, Eldred Hatch, Arel Jensen, Amos Hatch, Leslie Young, Beckler Hatch, Ephraim Josephson, David Watkins, Fern Pett, Ruel Eskelsen, Delbert Olsen, Clinton Lillywhite, Axel Figgins and Jay Peppson.

SURPRISE PARTY. Friday evening Jesse Shaw was happily surprised by a party of his little friends at his home on Twelfth street. Jesse having been sick most of the winter and missing the holidays. The surprise was arranged by Master John Frey and was complete, and the invaders entered and took possession. The evening was passed quickly in music and games, and after partaking of delicious refreshments the company reluctantly took leave.

TO ENTERTAIN. Mrs. Rosalia Rose will entertain the members of the Segal Lily Thimble club Tuesday afternoon, March 27, at her home on West Twenty-third street.

SERIOUS TROUBLE AMONG BULGARIANS
The Weber club and the Publicity Bureau arranged for a series of talks during the year of 1917, along with the noon-day luncheon. These affairs have been well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by those having the opportunity of being present.

Mr. Allen B. Albert, executive chairman of the Civic and Commercial association of Minnesota, formerly president of the International Rotary club, will give a talk during the luncheon hour at the club on Monday, March 26.

Next Saturday evening the Eagles will give a Novelty Smoker. Don't miss it, there will be fun galore.

PROVO, March 23.—Rula Francis, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Collins, died last night from pneumonia. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins, 916 West Fourth North street.

MRS. JENNIE L. NYE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Jennie L. Nye was hostess to the department officers and members of the ladies of the G. A. R. of which Mrs. Nye is department president of Utah, last Tuesday afternoon at her home on Adams avenue. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Kate L. Hodge, Mrs. Josephine B. Thomas, Mrs. Lillie C. Hadley and Mrs. Cora Clark Stevens, officers of the department of Utah residing in Ogden.

The home was decorated for the occasion in red, white and blue, and the colors were carried out in the refreshments served.

Nine Civil war veterans were among those present.

The following program was given and thoroughly enjoyed by all present: Solos, "A Hundred Years From Now" and "When the Bonnie, Bonnie Heather is Blooming," Mrs. Anna Winans Thiel.

Readings, "When We Haven't Said Our Prayers" and "The Road to Yesterday," Mrs. Frank Dodge.

The national anthem of Ladies of G. A. R., "One Flag, One Country," Mrs. Grace Russell Bartlett.

Readings from James Whitcomb Riley, "Knee Deep in June" and "Milo Jones' Wife," Mrs. Gertrude Carr.

Original poem, "Halloween," by Mrs. Lucy A. Clark of Salt Lake.

Pledge to the flag, by Lillian and Viola Thiel.

The following department officers from Salt Lake were present: Mesdames Mary Hubbard, Kate E. Farrell, Mary Lawrence, Alberta Houghton, Hattie Anderson, Lucy A. Clark and Agnes Price, also Lillia A. Tanner, past department president, Roberta McDonald, Mary Shannon and Lucy Norton.

Commanders of the Grand Army: Messrs. J. A. Wear, J. M. Van Der Vort, J. G. Fisher, W. N. Pierce, G. T. Terry, R. T. Crowe, A. M. White, A. D. Moser and Joseph L. Welshans, and B. F. Thomas was also a guest.

The following Ogden women were present: Mesdames Florence Littlefield, Margaret Murphy, Anna Winans Thiel, Lola Van Der Vort, Grace Russell Bartlett, Mary Russell, Lucy Hodge, Kate Hodge, Lillie Dunke, Etta Myers, Gertrude Dodge, Sarah Way, Hattie Daniels, Gertrude Carr, Alice Lindsey, Sarah Nicely Gray, Mary Chandler, Flora D. Jost, W. E. Archibald, Mary E. Wells, Josephine Wells, Robert Nye, Eunice Gordon, and Miss Eva C. Erb, Miss Jessie I. Minis, Miss Dorothy Gordon, Miss Phyllis Brown, Miss Lillian Thiel and Miss Viola Thiel.

FIRST WARD W. C. T. U.

The First ward W. C. T. U. met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. S. Wallace, 2852 Lincoln avenue. After devotionals, led by the president, Miss Leota Kennedy, the following program was given:

"Story of the Prohibition Victory in Utah," Mrs. Mary Drake.
"The Secret of Law Enforcement," Mrs. H. S. Wallace.

"Thirteen Reasons Why the Days of the Liquor Traffic in the United States Are Numbered," Mrs. Ida Brown.

"Prohibition in Tennessee," Mrs. J. W. Welch.

The program was closed by a discussion of the subject, "Is the United States Justified in Declaring War?" in which every one present took part, pro or con.

The hostess served tempting refreshments.

CRADLE ROLL

The Cradle Roll of the First Presbyterian church will give a social Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the church. Mesdames Kennedy, Caven, Robert Nye, Ashton and Watson will be hostesses of the day.

MIZPAH CLUB

Miss Elizabeth Blair will be hostess to the Mizpah club on next Thursday evening at her home on Washington avenue.

MASONIC CLUB DANCE

The last dance of the season for the Masonic fraternity and their families will be given on Tuesday evening, April 3, at the Knights of Pythias hall.

PLEASING EVENT

Mrs. J. W. Watson and Mrs. Alice Connolly were hostesses at a party Wednesday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. Connolly, 248 Peterson avenue. The rooms were adorned with bouquets of roses and carnations. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Myrtle Higley, Mr. and Mrs. Wells, Mr. Dicks, Mrs. Rasmussen and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Rife.

UTOPIA CLUB

Mrs. C. C. Wymer was hostess to the Utopia club Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. T. J. Nelson, Miss Nellie Nelson and Mrs. D. H. Pape as guests. The club will meet April 4 with Mrs. Albert Scowcroft as hostess.

LOGAN SOCIETY

Congressman and Mrs. Joseph Howell and family have returned from Washington, D. C., and will remain in Logan.

Mayor P. A. Thatcher has been appointed chairman of the new state industrial commission by Governor Bamberger and, with his family, will shortly leave for Salt Lake to make his residence.

H. A. Pederson, for eleven years the judge of the juvenile court in Logan, has resigned his office.

Prof. Levi E. Young of the U. of U. gave an excellent address on the "Ideals and Duties of American Citizenship" at the chapel services on Wednesday at the Agricultural college.

Mr. Emil Hansen, floriculturist at the U. A. C., is in Cedar City making arrangements for new plans for the grounds at the branch U. A. C. of that place.

The booths for the U. A. C. Junior Prom were auctioned off at the student body meeting on Friday morning.

R. S. McAllister has returned from a business trip to Salt Lake.

Dr. George Thomas will leave Sunday for California on a business trip.

W. E. Stevens returned during the week from a three weeks' business trip to Omaha, where he went in the interests of the Agricultural college.

Miss Harriett McAllister spent the week visiting in Salt Lake, the guest of Miss Ruth Allen.

Mr. Alma Chambers has returned from a visit with relatives in Salt Lake and Ogden.

H. H. Hardy of Salt Lake was a business visitor here during the week.

President E. G. Peterson has returned from Cedar City.

Miss Lettie Jacobson returned home Tuesday from a two-months' visit in California.

A. D. Bell has returned from Idaho, where he has been for several days on business.

Mr. Reid Shamhart was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Dr. W. B. Worley of Salt Lake was visiting here during the week.

Mrs. J. G. Riser of Salt Lake is the guest of her sister, Mrs. N. W. Haws.

Mr. J. H. Bankhead of Montana is here visiting with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walton of Pocatello, Ida., who have been visiting in Logan, returned to their home Wednesday.

Miss Carnia Thatcher, who has been the guest of Mrs. N. W. Haws for a week, returned to her home in Salt Lake Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hudson are visiting in Salt Lake.

LOGAN SOCIETY

Congressman and Mrs. Joseph Howell and family have returned from Washington, D. C., and will remain in Logan.

Mayor P. A. Thatcher has been appointed chairman of the new state industrial commission by Governor Bamberger and, with his family, will shortly leave for Salt Lake to make his residence.

H. A. Pederson, for eleven years the judge of the juvenile court in Logan, has resigned his office.

Prof. Levi E. Young of the U. of U. gave an excellent address on the "Ideals and Duties of American Citizenship" at the chapel services on Wednesday at the Agricultural college.

Mr. Emil Hansen, floriculturist at the U. A. C., is in Cedar City making arrangements for new plans for the grounds at the branch U. A. C. of that place.

The booths for the U. A. C. Junior Prom were auctioned off at the student body meeting on Friday morning.

R. S. McAllister has returned from a business trip to Salt Lake.

Dr. George Thomas will leave Sunday for California on a business trip.

W. E. Stevens returned during the week from a three weeks' business trip to Omaha, where he went in the interests of the Agricultural college.

Miss Harriett McAllister spent the week visiting in Salt Lake, the guest of Miss Ruth Allen.

Mr. Alma Chambers has returned from a visit with relatives in Salt Lake and Ogden.

H. H. Hardy of Salt Lake was a business visitor here during the week.

President E. G. Peterson has returned from Cedar City.

Miss Lettie Jacobson returned home Tuesday from a two-months' visit in California.

A. D. Bell has returned from Idaho, where he has been for several days on business.

Mr. Reid Shamhart was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Dr. W. B. Worley of Salt Lake was visiting here during the week.

Mrs. J. G. Riser of Salt Lake is the guest of her sister, Mrs. N. W. Haws.

Mr. J. H. Bankhead of Montana is here visiting with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walton of Pocatello, Ida., who have been visiting in Logan, returned to their home Wednesday.

Miss Carnia Thatcher, who has been the guest of Mrs. N. W. Haws for a week, returned to her home in Salt Lake Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hudson are visiting in Salt Lake.

Mrs. J. A. Gordon and baby, who have spent several months here, left Tuesday for their home in McGill, Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford T. Moses of Portland, Ore., are visiting in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henderson of Pocatello are visiting relatives here.

Attorney Asa Bullen spent the first part of the week in Pocatello.

Miss Mary Clayton returned Thursday from Salt Lake, where she has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Clayton.

L. F. Willoughby of Denver spent several days of the week in Logan.

Captain J. B. McDonald, S. M. Savage, A. F. C., of San Francisco, and F. E. Barnum of the Utah Guards, were in Logan on Monday to inspect Troop H.

The U. A. C. Woman's club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John T. Caine III, on College hill, Mrs. Asa Bullen and charge of the program and read one of Mary Chipman Andrews' very interesting little books, "The Three Things." The hostess served refreshments, assisted by Miss Kennie Caine and Mrs. George Caine. The club meets Monday, March 26, at the home of Mrs. Sidney O. Stevens, when Prof. F. K. Arnold will lecture.

Mrs. Emily Smith was hostess Wednesday afternoon for the club. Mrs. Smith read Audrey's drama, "To the Stars." Mrs. Vernon gave a very interesting discussion of the play. Musical numbers were given by Miss Margaret Smith. Refreshments were served. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Joseph Odell and Miss Irene Cressal.

The Daughters of the Pioneers met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Isaac Smith. After a short business meeting musical selections were given by the Misses Irene Smith and Ruby Harrison. A delicious luncheon was served. About twenty-five members were present.

Mrs. Joseph A. Smith, Sr., of Providence, entertained Friday afternoon at a Kensington tea in honor of her daughter's birthday anniversary. The guests invited to meet Mrs. Joseph Smith Jr. were: Mrs. D. M. Campbell, Mrs. F. C. Rossiter, Mrs. J. E. Hansen, Mrs. K. B. Campbell, Mrs. E. O. Mathews, Miss Vega and Miss Beulah Smith.

The house members of the Alpha Delta Epsilon entertained the Sorosis sorority Thursday evening at cards at the fraternity home on North First street. The rooms were decorated in spring flowers and a hot supper was served at a long table artistically arranged.

Mrs. Henry Barker, Jr., who entertained recently at a Red Cross event.

Popular High School Student Is Tendered Farewell Party

MISS ETHEL WARE.

Miss Ethel Ware, a popular '16 1/2 student of Ogden High school, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ware, 671 Twenty-third street, was guest of honor at a farewell party Thursday evening of this week at the home of Miss Florence Flewelling, 321 Twenty-seventh street, eighteen of Miss Ware's schoolmates being present.

The rooms and dining table at the Flewelling home were pretty with bouquets of blue and white forget-me-nots. A bowl of the blossoms graced the center of the dining table, while at each place were dainty place cards of blue birds and a spray of forget-me-nots.

The evening was enjoyably spent at games. Miss Ware, with her parents, leaves tonight for Montello, Nev., to make her home.

Jensen and George E. Smith, with a large chorus and scores of pretty dancing girls. The opera plays in Ogden and Brigham City on Friday and Saturday evening, March 30 and 31.

Mrs. Joseph Anderson entertained Monday evening at a delightful birthday dinner in honor of her husband's anniversary. Covers were laid for 14 guests.

Mrs. A. H. Thompson entertained her bridge club Thursday afternoon at her home on Chester street.

Mrs. Andrew McKenney celebrated her fiftieth birthday anniversary Saturday evening at her home. The house decorations were in roses and carnations, and a delicious supper was served to twenty-five guests.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Scheby entertained at an enjoyable evening affair on Tuesday. Thirty-five guests were present.

The Theta girls were guests at a surprise party given Wednesday evening by the Phi Kappa Iota fraternity members at the sorority house. The evening was spent in dancing and cards, followed by refreshments. Thirty guests were present.

The Delta Phi club was entertained at cards Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Ruth Barber.

Mrs. George Mikelson entertained Sunday at a large family birthday dinner in honor of her mother, Mrs. Louisa Smith. Relatives from Idaho and various parts of Utah came to be present at the celebration.

One of the enjoyable events of the week was the opera, "The Yankee Consul," presented Thursday and Friday evenings at Nibley hall by the Brigham Young College Opera company. The opera surpassed any the school has put on in previous years and was under the able direction of Prof. W. O. Robinson, assisted by Miss Florence Carlisle in the ballets. The principal roles were taken care of by Miss Lura Farrell, Miss Fanny Jordan, Miss Dita Peterson, Miss Mary Daines and Miss Delva Haycock. Messrs. Norman D. Salisbury, George D. Preston, Willard

Wayment was driving his car west on Twenty-fifth street and, just as he reached Hudson avenue an auto delivery truck, headed north, was driven sharply across the intersection in front of him. Attempting to dodge the smaller car, the Slaterville man drove his own automobile into the sidewalk and was unable to stop it in time to avoid its crashing into the drug store.

The smashup was one of the most serious and spectacular that has occurred in Ogden in many months.

MISS YOUNG

Quite the most charming washer woman imaginable is Miss Clara Kimball Young in one scene of "The Savage Instinct." In this scene she splashes the suds all over herself.—Advertiser.

At Utah Today

TOMORROW TWO ACTS OF GREAT FUN AND LAUGHTER NO SLAPSTICK SATURDAY AND SUNDAY ONLY

At Utah Clara Kimball Young

Scenes that charm the eye and a story that entertains throughout make "The Savage Instinct" a more than notable production. This picture play will be the big attraction at the UTAH THEATRE on SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY. Beautiful and charming Miss Clara Kimball Young will be seen in the leading role and she is supported by a splendid capable company, including Chester Barnett as the handsome hero. Anyone who desires delightful entertainment should see this picture.

POPULAR PLAYS AND PLAYERS—PHONE 3060.